California Suite
 (Comedy)
 by Neil Simon

Get set to laugh in four parts! This well-loved Simon classic follows the misadventures of guests from New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and London. The only thing they have in common: Suite 203-4 of the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Produced by Special Arrangement with Samuel French (Canada) Ltd.

November/December
The Dining Room
 (Drama)
 by A.R. Gurney

The one thing that remains the same throughout this mosaic of interrelated scenes is a dining room set from 1898. A portrait of the vanishing species of upper-middle-class WASPs, the great range, compassion and humanity in this drama makes it a must see.

Produced by Special Arrangement with Dramatists Play Service Inc.

April
Remember Me?
 (Comedy)
 by Sam Bobrick

On the surface, Mary and Brian have an ideal marriage. On an ordinary Sunday, Brian leaves to play tennis. While he is gone, Mary's college flame shows up and professes undying love. Or does he? Bobrick's knack for comedy makes this play a hit!

Produced by Special Arrangement with Samuel French (Canada) Ltd.

October
Postmortem
 (Mystery/Thriller)
 by Ken Ludwig

William Gillette, best known for his 30 year portrayal of crime sleuth Sherlock Holmes, has invited his sister and the cast from his latest play for a weekend at his medieval castle. He suspects one of the guests plots to murder him — and he's determined to solve the case!

Produced by Special Arrangement with Samuel French (Canada) Ltd.

February
City of Angels (Musical)

Book by Larry Gelbart
 Lyrics by David Zippel
 Music by Cy Coleman

City of Angels is loaded with music written in the contemporary jazz idiom, but also filled with side splitting comedy. Set in the glamorous, seductive Hollywood of the 1940's, the show chronicles the misadventures of a young novelist attempting to write a screenplay.

Produced by Special Arrangement with Tams-Witmark Music Library, Inc.
